

South Coast Group 7

Civil Air Patrol

presents

Training Leaders of Cadets (TLC)

17 March 2012

Los Alamitos Joint Forces Training Base

0700 – 1900 hours

Do you work with cadets? Do you want to become more effective at mentoring them and managing squadron level cadet programs? Then register for the TRAINING LEADERS OF CADETS course being hosted by Los Alamitos Cadet Squadron 153 and South Coast Group 7.

Topics to be covered include:

- Putting excitement into squadron meetings
- Developing partnerships with parents
- Providing each cadet with challenges
- Getting cadets off to a great start
- Mentoring cadets to develop their potential
- Overview of the CAWG Integrated Leadership Program

Student Pre-requisites: Senior members who have completed Level One. Sorry, no cadets allowed. Limited slots available!!!

STUDENT PREPARATION:

Before attending, review the five slide presentations at <http://www.capmembers.com/tlc> (Click on “Enter the Students site”)

Cost: $20

Includes lunch, snacks, &
student handbook

To Apply:

Email a CAWG Form 150 to Maj Mark Wong at markskarma@gmail.com. Bring a SIGNED CAWGF150 & $20 check (made out to “Civil Air Patrol”) with you to the course. Call (562) 449-3976 with questions. Application deadline for student participants is 01 March 2012.

* ALL participants must have current safety training as recorded in eServices ****